CIOs and IT Executives Invited to Speak at Upcoming Technology Event

September 30, 2011 – The CIO Summit team announced today that it would like to invite CIOs and IT executives from all industries to speak at the upcoming event, Nov 6 - 8, 2011 at the InterContinental in Miami.

The CIO Summit allows CIOs and IT executives to meet with their technology peers from various industries including, but not limited to healthcare, finance, insurance, government, telecom, utilities and education. The event's agenda is designed to encourage conversation among attendees, allowing them to discuss current challenges, best practices, breakthroughs, and trends. Agenda sessions include roundtables, think tanks, analyst Q&As, and keynote presentations.

Featured agenda sessions at the CIO Summit:

- Open Source Solutions for a Competitive Edge - Defining the Next Generation of Innovate IT Solutions
- Mobility/Wireless Trends and Security - Mobility Solutions to the Workforce
- Building a Comprehensive Information Security Plan
- IT Risk Management and Cost Optimization - Key Success Factors for any Operation
- Business and Marketing Analytics - Success through Analysis

Current speakers include representatives from Enterprise Strategy Group, Shane Company, T-Mobile and Citi.

CIO Summit speakers are senior-level IT decision makers representing Fortune 1000 organizations. Speakers must have executive-level experience with a direct technology focus. Participating speakers receive complimentary travel, accommodations, food and drink for the duration of the event.
