Chicago- May 17, 2016: CDM Media, a leading B2B marketing and media firm, has announced a new agenda topic to this year’s CIO Summit Houston, “Diversity in IT”. The event, being held in Houston, Texas on May 26, 2016, will debut this new highly-anticipated agenda topic.

The 2016 CIO Summit Houston continues to focus on the most relevant topics facing today’s CIOs with industry visionaries and senior operational executives sharing their perspectives.

Panelists for this session include Maria O’Neill, SVP CIO, American Bureau of Shipping; Angelique Grado, Zone Information Security Officer (Americas), Air Liquide; Jeffrey Vinson, VP and CISO, Harris Health System and Neeraj Vijay, Chief Information Officer – GE Flow & Process Technologies from GE Oil & Gas.

Takeaways will include:

- Identify the importance behind diversity in technology, opportunities and capabilities
- Discuss the importance of cultivating diversity at the grass-roots level and building post-secondary programs that drive female awareness of and interest in IT
- Understand the hurdles that exist that limit the prevalence of women in IT, and what steps can be taken to lower, if not eliminate, them.

Unlike typical tradeshow designed to attract hundreds of individuals of all different levels of seniority, from various industries, CDM Media’s events host a more exclusive event limited to 40-50 leading senior executives. This targeted and intimate event design yields strong collaboration, innovation and discussions key to individual success.
