FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Healthcare Technology Online to Participate as Media Partner for CIO Healthcare Summit

March 9, 2010 – The CIO Healthcare Summit team is pleased to announce that Healthcare Technology Online, an online resource and newsletter for technology professionals in the healthcare field, has signed on to support the upcoming event as a publication media partner. The CIO Healthcare Summit will be held May 9-12, 2010 at the InterContinental Montelucia Resort in Scottsdale, AZ.

The CIO Healthcare Summit is an opportunity for CIOs to network, learn and discover new IT solutions for their hospital or healthcare organization. This year's agenda is packed with panel discussions, case studies and keynote presentations on the healthcare industry's most pressing IT trends, including EMRs and EHRs, the HITECH Act, Meaningful Use, the consumer health movement, security in the Cloud, and more.

Healthcare Technology Online is a free newsletter and online resource for IT professionals, and includes the most up-to-date information on healthcare solutions, including case studies, whitepapers, and more. The Web site includes information on healthcare technology from field technologies to disaster recovery, patient identification to medical imaging, and more.

"We are happy to be partnering with Healthcare Technology Online for the 2010 CIO Healthcare Summit. The information that they provide on their Web site and through their newsletter keeps healthcare technology professionals ahead of the curve, and allows them to run their organizations effectively and efficiently. The resources that they provide will be a great asset to our CIO attendees," said Nick Backhouse, Event Director, CIO Healthcare Summit.

With strategic media partners and a packed agenda, the CIO Healthcare Summit is quickly becoming the must-attend event for CIOs and innovative technology thought-leaders in the healthcare industry. For more information about the healthcare IT event, go to <http://www.ciohealthcaresummit.com/>.
