CIO Healthcare Summit Partners with Porter Research for 2012 Event

May 10, 2011 – The CDM Media team announced today that it has formed a strategic partnership with Porter Research for the 2012 CIO Healthcare Summit. Porter Research is a marketing, research, and consulting company that helps clients become high-performance businesses within their industries by delivering actionable market intelligence and research insight.

The CIO Healthcare Summit, March 11-14, 2012, brings together CIOs, healthcare technology executives, analysts and solution providers to network and have in-depth conversations on the latest IT topics and trends. The event is an opportunity for attendees to make new business contacts, share ideas and best practices, and explore the latest technology solutions in a relaxed, yet focused business setting.

Porter Research, located in Atlanta, has extensive experience working with Fortune 500 healthcare companies, and has built a significant practice in the healthcare technology, provider, payer and life sciences sectors. Porter also provides up-to-date information on the healthcare sector through its blog and bimonthly e-newsletter, the “Healthcare Intelligence Hub.”

“The Porter Research team has the inside information and insight on the healthcare industry that our event attendees need to know in order to make the best decisions for their organizations and stay up to date on the latest trends and technologies. I look forward to working with them for the 2012 event and introducing them to our event attendees,” said Chris Li, Event Director, CIO Healthcare Summit.
