CIO Finance Summit Announces Attendees from Citi and Bank of America

May 20, 2011 – The CIO Finance Summit team announced today a few of the latest CIOs and IT executives who will attend the upcoming technology event, August 21-24, 2011 in Scottsdale, Arizona.

The CIO Finance Summit brings together leading finance technology executives, industry analysts and solution providers to make new business contacts, discuss current industry trends and share best practices. The event includes formal and informal networking opportunities as well as interactive agenda sessions, including panel discussions, analyst Q&A sessions, think tanks and roundtables.

A few of the CIO Finance Summit attendees:

- Vas Kodali, SVP, MIS & Analytics, Bank of America
- Sudhir Nair, SVP, Technology Home Loans & Insurance Technology, Bank of America
- Ramit Luthra, Director, Enterprise Infrastructure, Citi
- Angelo Valletta, SVP & CIO, Sun National Bank
- Butch Leonardson, SVP & CIO, BECU
- Curtis Generous, CTO, Navy Federal Credit Union

“The innovative delegates who are planning to attend the CIO Finance Summit are a testament to the value that the event provides. I’m excited to welcome executives from these leading finance organizations to the event and look forward to the knowledge and industry insights that they will provide onsite,” said Mark Southam, Event Director, CIO Finance Summit.
