CDM Media Renews Partnership with the Telecom Council of Silicon Valley

CHICAGO, May 9, 2012 – The CDM Media team announced today that it has renewed their strategic partnership with the Telecom Council of Silicon Valley, a group dedicated to connecting companies and individuals involved in the communications technology industry.

CDM Media's CIO Summits bring together CIOs, analysts, and solution providers to make new business contacts and discuss current IT topics and trends. Held in an intimate and focused business setting, the CIO Summits are an opportunity for executives to network with a group of peers with similar focuses, share ideas and discuss current technology projects.

The Telecom Council of Silicon Valley will be partnering with CDM Media for the following CIO Summits:

- CIO Midmarket Summit (June 3-5, 2012)
- CTO Telecom Summit (September 16-18, 2012)
- CIO Summit (November 11-13, 2012)

Established in 2000, the Telecom Council of Silicon Valley provides the network, tools, framework and meetings to bring together the industry's local critical mass of wireless and fixed telecom companies. The Council is advancing the telecom industry by connecting global market leaders and creating a hub to increase their global visibility.
