Canada's C-Suite Elite to Assemble at CIO Canada Summit

CDM Media's First Summit of 2015 Kicks Off Calendar of Top Tier C-Level Thought Leadership Events, Delivering Insights into Crucial IT Trends and Topics

CHICAGO, January 20, 2015 – CDM Media, the leading B2B technology marketing and media firm, today showcased key delegates confirmed to congregate in Montreal, Canada for its annual CIO Canada Summit, as well as the overall schedule of C-level events for the first calendar quarter of 2015. Taking place from February 8-10, 2015 at the Ritz-Carlton, Montreal, QC, the CIO Canada Summit will bring together more than 40 top CIOs to collaborate on key issues and trends and learn about the latest technology solutions tailored to their needs in an intimate, focused business environment. The summit will include senior leaders from the following industries: healthcare, telecom, finance, education, insurance, government, retail, transportation, and utilities.

With sessions such as "Cloud, Crowd, Content: Changing the Big Data Game"; "The CIO's top 3 priorities for 2015"; "Embracing the Mobile Wallet"; and "Data Centric Security," a leading roster of industry heavy-weights, including Edward Kiledjian, Chief Information Security Officer, Bombardier Aerospace; Glenn Foster, SVP, Head of Cyber Security, TD Bank; Mary Anne Palangio, SVP & CIO Group Functions, Manulife; Peter Bruce, Senior Assistant Deputy Minister, Projects and Client Relationships, Shared Services Canada - Government of Canada; and Dr. Ralph Ostertag, Vice President & CIO, ITM Canada, Mexico & Latin America, Mercedes-Benz Canada Inc. will help set the stage for what lies ahead in 2015, as well as what CIOs should be keeping top-of-mind today.
