CIOs AND IT EXECUTIVES INVITED TO SPEAK AT UPCOMING CIO MANUFACTURING SUMMIT

CHICAGO, July 30, 2012—CDM Media extended an invitation to CIOs and IT executives today to speak at the upcoming CIO Manufacturing Summit, to be held Aug. 26-28, 2012, in Scottsdale, Ariz.

The CIO Manufacturing Summit is the premier event for technology leaders and innovative thinkers, specifically CIOs, in the manufacturing industry. The summit's strategic agenda is designed to maximize efficiency and offer unique insight into present and future challenges facing CIOs in the industry.

A few of this year's agenda session titles:

- Securing the Smart Device—Do You Have a BYOC (Bring Your Own Computer) Strategy?
- The Value of High-Performance Computing and Storage in Product Development
- Near- and Long-Term Trends Shaping IT in Manufacturing
- Protecting Data across a Mobile, Collaborative Supply Chain
- Talent Retention and Development: the Growing Skills Gap

CIO Manufacturing Summit speakers are senior-level decision-makers at Fortune 1000 organizations. Speakers must have executive-level experience within a major institution, with a direct focus on manufacturing.

Participating speakers receive complimentary travel, accommodations, food and drink for the duration of the summit. For more information about participating in this year's event as a speaker, or to register, visit www.ciomanufacturingsummit.com/callforspeakers/.

About the CIO Manufacturing Summit

The CIO Manufacturing Summit brings together CIOs and IT executives to discuss the changing landscape of manufacturing, as well as how technology can bolster growth opportunities within organizations. Through agenda sessions that create opportunities for in-depth conversations, attendees discuss technology topics and trends, sharing best practices, lessons learned and recent projects in an exclusive business setting. The summit is a unique opportunity to connect with peers and learn about the latest technology solutions.
